

Note Couture

Why use a plain thank-you card when you can send a custom one instead? These pretty, personalized options, for both brides and couples, let you make an indelible impression

WRITTEN BY ELIZABETH JENKINS ■ PHOTOGRAPHED BY YUNHEE KIM

STATIONERY

1

2

initials & monograms

Pick notes with your initials for yourself, or you and your groom can both use ones that feature a joint monogram (or the first letter of your shared last name).

1. Engraving on folded stock, Grapevine, $500*; 800-994-3799 or grapevineweddings.com.

2. Flat printing on card stock, Elle Alexandra, $130; 225-933-6729 or ellealexandra.com.

3. Silk-embroidered vintage linen on folded paper, Tiger & Jones, $500; tigerandjones.com.

4. Letterpress on cotton stock, Elum, $472; 858-453-4500 or elumdesigns.com.

5. Flat printing on folded stock, Boatman Geller, $160; at finestationery.com.

7

3

4

