

Weddings InStyle

SPECIAL
Destination
Wedding
Planner

48 Ways to Personalize
Your Day

BIG-DAY BEAUTY

HAIRSTYLE
IDEAS
MAKEUP
TRICKS
PLUS
STYLISH
ACCESSORIES

Without A Trace's
ROSELYN SANCHEZ
Finds the Perfect Gown

SUMMER 2008
SPECIAL ISSUE DISPLAY UNTIL SEPTEMBER 12

$5.99 US $6.99 CAN 83

Your Style Guide

AMAZING GOWNS GORGEOUS JEWELRY HOT SHOES PERFECT FLOWERS

StyleWeddings.com

A single pattern can work anywhere from the canopy to the cake.

Grapevine folio menus inspire a cake pattern, bakery box and more at the wedding reception!

26

REPEAT PATTERNS

You can choose a pattern to be your wedding signature. Rago created a thematic motif by having the lace detailing in a bride's wedding dress duplicated for the dance-floor design. "The border of the floor was hand-painted with the pattern, and the couple's initials were in the center," she explains.

27

CONSIDER COASTERS

Swap out monogrammed cocktail napkins for elegant letter-pressed coasters that can be customized to match your invitations and save-the-dates. "They're really cute," says Gorjesta

28

GIVE A GARDEN

Beautifully wrapped potted flowers like paperwhites and amaryllis that will bloom in a few months are one of Bailey's favorite favors. "I have more life to them than the usual frames or other people give," he explains.

29

SERVE YUMMY COMFORT FOOD

Incorporating meaningful family foods into the menu is a nice way to pay tribute to a family member and personalize the experience for guests. "When Nas and Kelis were married, we used her mother's macaroni and cheese recipe because it was Nas's favorite dish," recalls Valentine. D