- ◆ Choose a rich color palette, like sapphire blue, pine green, and silver. Table topped with puffy taffeta linen, antique candelabra, salt cellars and spoons, mirrored stands, and etched glassware. Place settings and flatware by Anthropologie. Chiavari chairs and napkins by Party Rental Ltd. Centerpieces of yellow garden roses, hydrangeas, super green roses, blue delphiniums, ranunculus, and viburnums; hatbox trimmed in velvet ribbon from Marmelstein's.
- ◆ Set the tone with a grand wedding invitation. Vintage digar box invitation with custom monogram and label, and matching tented table number and favor tag, all by Grapevine Paperie.
- ◆ Wear estate-inspired jewelry for a touch of color and a classic feel. From top: platinum eternity bands with square-cut emeralds and princess-cut diamonds, and platinum eternity band with baguette-cut diamonds, all by OGI Art Deco sapphire and diamond ring set in platinum by A. Harris Jewelers.
- ◆ Dress your groom-to-be in a bow tie. Silk woven dot bow tie by Brooks Brothers.
- ◆ Pin a vintage brooch to your bouquet. Yellow garden roses, green and yellow ranunculus, super green roses, green viburnums, and hydrangeas wrapped with blue satin ribbon.
- ◆ Give something old as a wedding favor. Vintage cordial glass tied with velvet blue ribbon accented with delphiniums and green pom-pom mums. >>
