

FALL/WINTER 2008

the knot

BOSTON

theknot.com/boston

stylish reception ideas

* put a new twist
on traditions

the most glamorous cakes ever

10 stunning boston weddings

new bridal beauty tips

your ultimate wedding guide for:

Boston
Cape Cod
The North Shore
Central Mass

$4.99 Display Until December 22, 2008

0 71486 01854 4

No. 2
Cover your invite in vintage scrollwork. Vintage bookplate invitation, grapevinepaperie.com

21 stationery ideas

From save-the-dates to invitations, here's what's hot on paper.

BY CHRISTA VAGNOZZI PHOTOGRAPH BY ANTONIS ACHILLEOS
STYLING BY MEGAN HEDGPETH

No. 5
Give your monogram a makeover. Envelope and reply card with letterpress monogram, elizabethandhomer.com

No. 8
Go for bold splashes of color. Table number, saimasaysdesign.com

No. 11
Downsize your ceremony programs. Gold accordion-folded programs, saimasaysdesign.com

No. 16
Don't forget about the back. Double-sided invite suite with flowering branch silhouette, elizabethandhomer.com

When it comes to your wedding, you want to stamp your own personal style on every aspect of the day. In the business world, they call this "branding." In the wedding world, the branding begins and ends with your stationery. You can use your stationery to pull together the entire look of your wedding. Just select a color, monogram, and font, then run with them. Here we offer 21 hot ideas to help you create a suite of wedding stationery that's as unique as the two of you. >>

No. 2

Cover your invite in vintage scrollwork. Vintage bookplate invitation, grapevinepaperie.com

